

CENTRAL ARIZONA COLLEGE
Spring Semester at SaddleBrooke

A BEGINNING SPANISH COURSE

Instructor Teresa Chevez

Wednesday, January 16-February 20

9-12

Credit 1.25

Arizona Residents $57.00* Non-Residents $114.00

SaddleBrooke Clubhouse

For beginning students of Spanish or those whom need a refresher course in the basics of the language. Minimum 10 people

Spanish Practice for Everyone

Instructor Teresa Chevez

Wednesday, January 16-March 26

1-4

Credit 1.25

Arizona Residents $71.25* Non-Residents $142.50

SaddleBrooke Clubhouse

This course offers the students that have a basic knowledge of Spanish to improve their skill in an environment that improves and encourages communication skills. Minimum 10 people

Geology Concepts

Instructor Karen Gray

Thursday January 17-April 10

9-12

Credit 1.5

Arizona Residents $85.50* Non-Residents $171.00

SaddleBrooke Clubhouse

Principles of geology are covered. Participants will learn to identify local geology. This course includes two field trips.

Minimum 10 people.

CREATING YOUR LEGACY

Instructor Jack Davis

Tuesday February 5 – February 26

9-11

$25

MountainView Cluhouse

Learn the principle steps in managing your legacy and the formula for insuring a smooth transfer of your legacy to your heirs.

CREATIVE WRITING

Instructor Mary Anne Butler

Monday February 4 – March 10

9-11:30

SaddleBrooke Clubhouse

$57.00

Participants will lean how to use their imagination and facts to create fiction and nonfiction, and how to make all types of writing more interesting including writing for your own and your family's pleasure.

ARIZONA FROM ORACLE TO ORO VALLEY HISTORY, ROCKS, WILDLIFE AND PLANTS

Various Instructors

Wednesday and Thursday, February 6- February 21. Wednesday 10-12 Wednesday lecture at MountainView Clubhouse, Thursday field trips

An integrated course combining several topics of interest and offering an overview of Arizona's history, local history, and the local geology, wildlife and botany.

First week: Arizona state history by Jim Turner from the Arizona Historical Society and local history by Barbara Marriott, field trip is to Old Oracle.

Second week: Local geology with Karen Gray. Field trip will be to Catalina State Park.

Third week: Wild life lecture by desert naturalist Jim Cloer, field trip is a botany tour of Tohono Chul.

$45

CATTLE

Thursday, February 21, Friday February 22

Chuck Smallhouse will share the history of his ranching family.

The Smallhouses are sixth generation Arizona ranchers. Thursday talk at the MountainView will be 10-12, field trip is to the historic Empire Ranch.

$65.00 Includes transportation and entrance fees.

COPPER

Thursday February 28, Friday February 29

Thursday Onofre Tayfola will share his experiences of 27 plus years in copper mining. Thursday talk at the MountainView 9-12, Friday fieldtrip to Asarco museum and tour the open pit mine.

$70.00 Includes transportation and entrance fees.

CINEMA

March 7, 9-3, class meets at Old Tucson for talk and tour.

Bob Shelton will tell stories and answers questions about his time in western movies, his friend John Wayne, his former ownership of Old Tucson, and the early history of movies in Arizona.

$45.00

To qualify for resident fees students must show proof of legal residence in Arizona for at least one year. Proof can be Arizona driver's license, Arizona voting card or some other official document.